

CONTENTS

Foreword	85
Greetings for Symposium Participants	87
Greetings for Symposium Participants	89
Lokesh Chandra
Buddhist art: internalisation and innovation	90
Beer R.
Iconography of the frescos of Mindrolling Stupa in Dehra Dun, India ...	95
Albedil M. F.
Buddhist art: on the nature of perception	102
Demenova V. V., Urozhenko O. A.
The Search for “New Identity” in the Images of Contemporary Buddhist Art and in the Works of A. G. Rakhmetov, the Master of Thangka Painting	110
Balzhurova A. Z.
The “Canon” and the “Lubok” in Buryat Thangka Painting	121
Elikhina Y. I.
Some Works of Modern Buddhist Art in the Hermitage Collection ...	128
Nirmala Sharma
Rejuvenation of Buddhist Art and Practice in India	134
Klasanova L. M.
Traditions and Innovations in the Creation of Tibetan Thangka Painting	139
Bardaleyeva S. B.
Traditions of S.-Ts. Tsybikov School and their Impact on the Art of Modern Masters	147
About contributors	156